If an employee is injured at work by somebody else and the other person doesn't pay the court award that your employee gets from them, we will cover it.

Under all contracts some situations are not covered. Please read this section carefully to make sure you understand what cover is not included in your own insurance.

These exceptions are specific to Section A Employers' Liability but please see 'General Exceptions' because those also apply.

- 1 We may treat this Policy as void and refuse all claims and recover from You any sums already paid by Us to You in respect of claims if:

Here are some examples of changes You should tell Us about:

- An increase in the estimated wages, salaries, Turnover, payments to sub-contractors who are not employees, maximum number of employees or maximum number of sub-contractors who are not employees, but only if any increase is more than 50% of Your previously advised estimate for the Period of Insurance. How Your premium works

Your premium is the minimum and deposit premium based on the estimates You have provided. You must keep an accurate record of the actual figures. Within one month of the expiry of each Period of Insurance You must provide us with the actual figures, so that the premium can be recalculated. If the recalculated premium exceeds the minimum and deposit premium You have paid, we can charge an additional premium which You must pay.

Cancellation

This is how Your insurance can be cancelled:

- We or Your insurance adviser can send You seven days' notice to Your last known address. We will refund the proportion of Your premium equivalent to the period of the insurance You have left. We will not give a refund if there has been a claim or an Occurrence which could lead to a claim in the current Period of Insurance.
